Ms. Holsman,

I left you a voice mail yesterday afternoon, but I also thought I would follow up in an email with you here today, in case you did not get a chance to listen to that yet.

My name is Sandy Robson, and (b) (6). I am a free lance writer who has been following Washington state Senator Doug Ericksen's Temporal Transitional Schedule C position appointment as a Senior Adviser with EPA Headquarters, back on January 21, 2017, which concluded on May 20, 2017, and his possible upcoming return to employment with your agency.

I heard recently that Mr. Ericksen may be joining the EPA as an employee after the New Year, I believe, as a Special Adviser to the agency's Region 10 Regional Administrator.

I am hoping to confirm with you if, in fact, Mr. Ericksen will be joining the Region 10 office as an employee, and if he will be, what his job title will be.

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Wishing you a nice holiday season.
Regards,

Sandy Robson
